

YALE UNIVERSITY
ART GALLERY

YALE UNIVERSITY ART GALLERY WELCOMES FAMILIES TO THE NEWLY RENOVATED LOUIS KAHN BUILDING

WHAT The Yale University Art Gallery, a fine-arts museum for the community and one of the oldest college art museums in the world, invites the public to a special Family Day celebrating the reopening of the landmark Louis Kahn building.

WHEN January 28, 2007, 1:00–5:00 PM
(Snow date February 4)

WHERE Yale University Art Gallery
1111 Chapel Street, New Haven
203.432.0600

DESCRIPTION The Yale University Art Gallery invites families to a special day in the newly renovated Kahn building to participate in art-making activities, storytelling, and tours for children ages 4–10. Light refreshments will be served in the new Jan and Frederick Mayer Lobby.

Visitors are welcome to explore the reinstalled collection, including many superb new acquisitions from the African, Asian, early European, modern, and contemporary collections. Three special exhibitions, presenting works by Jasper Johns, prints by contemporary artists, and postwar sculpture from the collection, are also on view.

The spring calendar of events, featuring a poster of the renovated building, will be available.

WHO Everyone is invited; activities are aimed toward young children and families.

CONTACT For more information, please contact the Gallery's Education Department at 203.432.3706.

Press Information

For additional press information or visual materials, please contact Amy Jean Porter, Associate Director of Communications, 203.432.0611, amy.porter@yale.edu.